PRODUCT DESCRIPTION [All new vendors must describe their products. Those who prefer Centennial Hall, please include a statement as to how your product or presentation will meet the criteria as stated below.]

Long-time vendors need not describe their products if these remain unchanged.
 The applications of new vendors who do not describe their products will not be considered.

THE T H I R T Y - F O U R T H A N N U A L PUBLIC MARKET

You are invited to apply for a space in the next Alaska-Juneau Public Market, Thanksgiving weekend, Friday through Sunday, November 25, 26, 27, 2016, at the Juneau Centennial Hall and the Public Market Annex at the Juneau Arts & Culture Center (JACC).

The initial application period is the month of July, 2016. We will mail/email notice of your application status by August 7, 2016.

For consideration of location preference, your application must be received by July 31. With notification of assignments, each vendors will receive an invoice along with an application for tables, table skirting, and other equipment. Your assignment will be confirmed upon receipt of rental rate payment in full (refunds are prompt). We'll also provide participating vendors with further information about the Public Market. After the initial application period closes on July 31, assignments will continue, but only on a space available basis.

Both the Centennial Hall Public Market and the Public Market Annex will be open to the public from noon to 7 p.m. on Friday (Nov. 25), and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday (Nov. 26 & 27).

Vendors may set up their booth displays on Wednesday, Nov. 23, from 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. (We are closed Thanksgiving Day, November 26.) Set up continues on Friday from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.

For inquiries, email is best <metcom@gci.net>. Second best, call our answering device at 907-586-4072. The answering device allows you the time to leave your name, phone number and mailing address, and questions.

SELECTION CRITERIA

At Centennial Hall, we charge admission; at the Public Market Annex in the Juneau Arts & Culture Center, no admission is charged. We are selective for applicants who prefer a space assignment at the Public Market in Centennial Hall, while applicants for the Annex are assigned primarily on a first come/first served basis.

For Centennial Hall applications we give preference according to the following criteria:

1) High quality products/services available "Only at the Public Market!" 2) Good food (we can always use more good food!). 3) If your product is commonly available in Juneau, describe how you intend to promote/advertise your presence at the Market, and describe how your Public Market offerings would be markedly different from your retail outlet or your presentations at local arts & crafts shows.

It is possible the product and service you intend to offer simply does not meet with our goal of presenting a unique Holiday shopping experience for our customers who pay to enter Centennial Hall. Until the Public Market Annex is full, assignment at this "no admission charged" venue will be available to all applicants. Any vendor assigned to the Annex will have the opportunity to be listed for reassignment to Centennial Hall. We have a high rate of success with reassignments.

The Public Market Annex

Each Annex booth space is defined by pipe frame & drape separators, with sidewalls that are approximately 3' high. Perimeter booths have an 8' high back, while the center section booths do not. Creative use of each space is encouraged, but please let us know your intentions prior to the event.
